Voice of the Stars

Music is a magical language that connects hearts, sparks creativity, and inspires children to express themselves. To nurture musical talent and confidence among our young learners, we are delighted to announce that our school will be organizing a Music Competition – ‘Voice of the Stars’ for the students of Grade I and II. This exciting platform will encourage children to showcase their singing abilities, enjoy the joy of performing, and celebrate the beauty of music.

Date of Competition: December 16, 2025

Students are encouraged to prepare any age-appropriate song. They may also bring any musical instrument (age-appropriate and safe) to enhance their performance.

Competition Rounds

Round 1 (Selection Round): December 15, 2025

Selected students from Round 1 will move forward to the competition round, where they will perform on stage in front of a panel of judges and their peers.

Judgement Criteria

- Pitch & Intonation
- Rhythm & Timing
- Voice Quality
- Pronunciation\ Clarity
- Overall Performance

We request parents to help students practice regularly and support them in building confidence for a melodious and meaningful performance. We look forward to cheering for our shining young stars as they light up the stage with music!

Happy Hearts Outdoor Fun

English Handwriting Competition

Your handwriting is your voice on paper; make it shine!

We are pleased to announce that our school will be organizing an English Handwriting Competition to encourage students to develop neat, legible, and confident writing skills. This event aims to instill good writing habits, enhance fine motor development, and motivate children to take pride in presenting their work beautifully while fostering discipline and concentration. The competition will be on the print font that our Dipsites have already mastered.

Students will receive practice handwriting sheets to help them improve their writing skills ahead of the competition. We encourage you to support and motivate them as they work on these exercises.

Judgment Parameters:

- Neatness and Cleanliness
- Print Letter Formation (No Cursive)
- Spacing and Alignment
- Overall Presentation

We look forward to your cooperation in making these activities enjoyable and meaningful for our young learners to help them grow as confident individuals.

Regards
