Dear Parent,

Books are gateways to imagination, knowledge, and creativity. To foster the joy of reading and celebrate the magic of stories, our school will be observing National Book Week from November 24, 2025 - November 28, 2025.

Here's a glimpse of the activities planned for our Dipsites:

17th – 28th November, 2025 – “My Story, My Way!” (Book-Making Activity):

- Grade II students will design and write their own imaginative

17th - 24th November, 2025 – D.E.A.R. Time (Drop Everything and Read):

- Students will pause all activities to enjoy reading a book of their choice, creating a calm and joyful reading atmosphere across the school.

27th November, 2025 – Readathon:

- Students will join a Readathon, reading a book provided on the spot to build focus, comprehension, and fluency while enjoying spontaneous reading.

28th November – “Creative Covers, Happy Minds!” Competition (Cover Page Designing Competition):

- Students will design an imaginative book cover, showcasing their creativity and artistic expression. The sheet for the competition will be provided by the school.

We request parents to encourage their children to practice daily reading at home in preparation for the Readathon. Through these engaging activities, we aim to ignite a lifelong love for reading and storytelling in every child.
