“Reading is a passport to countless adventures.”

Dear Parent,

Books are gateways to imagination, knowledge, and creativity. To foster the joy of reading and celebrate the magic of stories, our school will be observing National Book Week from November 24, 2025 - November 28, 2025.

Below is the schedule for the week for Balvatika - II -

📅 25th November, 2025 – Tuesday

Storybook Parade:

Students can dress up as their favourite story character and carry the storybook with them. After the parade, they will retell the story to their classmates.

📅 26th November, 2025 – Wednesday

Book Buddies:

Students will pair up with classmates to read together, share stories, and learn the importance of taking care of books while reading.

📅 27th November – Thursday

Readathon (DEAR):

A fun day of reading, exploring different storybooks in class, and visiting the school library to explore more books.

📅 28th November – Friday

Treasure Exchange – Book for a Book (BV II students):

Students are required to bring 1 old storybook in good condition to exchange with a friend.

We look forward to a joyful and enriching Book Week filled with imagination, creativity, and the magic of stories!

Warm Regards,

Headmistress
