Til Gur Treat Time - A Laddoo Making Activity

To celebrate the festivals of Makar Sankranti and Lohri, we are pleased to organize a fun and joyful celebration with a bonfire and Laddoo-making activity for the students of Grade I.

Event Details:

- Activity Name: Til Gur Treat Time
- Date: 14th January

Through this hands-on activity, children will learn about the importance of Til-Gur during Makar Sankranti while enjoying the fun of making laddoos together. The activity aims to encourage social bonding, teamwork, and cultural awareness.

Further details regarding materials and instructions will be shared by the class teacher through the WhatsApp message.

Celebrating the Spirit of Our Country – Hamara Desh, Hamari Shaan

India's true strength is reflected in its vast diversity, where every state adds its own distinctive colour to the nation's rich mosaic of culture, language, and traditions. Embracing this spirit of unity in diversity, the school has organized a week-long celebration to familiarize students with the different states of India and to appreciate their unique heritage.

As part of this initiative, our Grade I students will further explore and celebrate the royal and vibrant culture of Rajasthan—a state renowned for its majestic forts, colourful attire, lively folk music and dances, and rich cultural legacy.

Event Details:

- Date of Presentation: January 23, 2026
- Theme: Hamara Desh, Hamari Shaan – Celebrating the Diversity of India
- State Represented: Rajasthan

Dress Code:

Parents are requested to dress their wards in traditional Rajasthani attire, enabling them live and represent the state in a lively manner.

Activities:

- Class presentation introducing the culture and famous landmarks of Rajasthan
- Interesting facts and engaging activities focusing on Rajasthani food, festivals, folk music, and dance

This celebration aims to foster cultural awareness, confidence, and a sense of pride in India's rich heritage among our Grade I students. We look forward to your cooperation in making this event bright, joyful, and memorable. Let us come together to bring the colourful spirit of Rajasthan alive in our classrooms.

Thank you for your unwavering support in our efforts to nurture confident and accomplished Dipsites.

Warm Regards

Headmistress
