Til Gur Te Vadhayyaan- Lohri and Makar Sankranti Celebration

We are delighted to inform you that our Montessori students will be celebrating the joyful festival of Lohri, a festival that symbolizes warmth, happiness, and togetherness. The celebration will be organized within the school premises to help children experience and appreciate the richness of Indian culture in a fun and age-appropriate manner.

To make the occasion special, we request you to dress your child in traditional Punjabi/Indian attire associated with Lohri, so they can enjoy the festive spirit wholeheartedly.

During the celebration, children will learn about the importance of Indian traditions and values related to the festival. They will also enjoy festive treats such as 'moongfli' and 'revri', sharing happy moments with their friends and teachers. Through songs, smiles, and sharing, the children will experience the true essence of Lohri—joy, gratitude, and togetherness.

Parents may also send a small quantity of mufli and revri with their child to be shared with their friends during the celebration.

Soldier Play Day - Army Day Celebration

“Army Day is here, and we are ready to salute our brave soldiers with pride and gratitude!”

To nurture a sense of love for the nation and to introduce our young learners to values such as discipline, bravery, teamwork, and respect for our soldiers, the school will celebrate Army Day on Thursday, 15 January 2026, within the school campus.

On this special occasion, children will take part in a fun-filled “Soldier for a Day” experience. Through safe, playful, and age-appropriate activities, students will get a glimpse of the strength, courage, and teamwork shown by our soldiers, in a manner that is engaging and enjoyable for our Montessori students.

To add to the excitement, students are encouraged to come dressed as Indian Army soldiers or in army-inspired attire.

Planned Activities:

- Crawling through tunnels
- Jumping over tyre obstacles
- Climbing and crossing a net frame

All activities will be conducted in a secure and well-supervised environment under the guidance of teachers and support staff. Parents are requested to ensure that children wear comfortable clothes and appropriate footwear to allow easy movement.

We seek your cooperation in making this Army Day celebration a joyful, meaningful, and memorable experience for our young learners.

We are delighted to inform you that our Playgroup students will be celebrating the joyful festival of Lohri, a festival that symbolizes warmth, happiness, and togetherness. The celebration will be organized within the school premises to help children experience and appreciate the richness of Indian culture in a fun and age-appropriate manner.

To make the occasion special, we request you to dress your child in traditional Punjabi/Indian attire associated with Lohri, so they can enjoy the festive spirit wholeheartedly.

During the celebration, children will learn about the importance of Indian traditions and values. They will also enjoy festive treats such as mufli (peanuts) and revri, sharing happy moments with their friends. Through songs, smiles, and sharing, the children will experience the true essence of Lohri—joy, gratitude, and togetherness.

Parents may also send a small quantity of mufli and revri with their child to be shared after the celebration.

Little Hearts, Big Love – Republic Day Celebration

To help our young learners experience the joy and importance of Republic Day in a simple and meaningful way, a special celebration is planned for our Montessori students. Celebrating national days at this early age helps children develop a sense of belonging, pride in their country, and respect for national symbols. Through fun, hands-on activities and colourful experiences, children begin to understand values such as togetherness, sharing, and love for the nation in an age-appropriate and joyful manner.

Students will witness a Jhanki (presentation) showcasing three Indian states—Punjab from the North, Rajasthan from the West, and Kerala from the South—presented by students of Balvatika III and Grades I and II.

To add colour and festive spirit to the celebration, we request you to send your child dressed in saffron, white, and green attire on this day or any other attire that represents patriotic fervour.

Tri-Colour Sandwich Making Activity

Kindly send the following items with your child:

- Two slices of bread
- Saffron-coloured ingredient (carrot or tomato spread)
- White-coloured ingredient (paneer, cheese, or mayonnaise)
- Green-coloured ingredient (cucumber or coriander chutney)

Please ensure that all food items are fresh.

Through this engaging activity, children will enjoy learning about colours, sharing, independence, and love for the nation in an enjoyable manner.

We sincerely appreciate your cooperation and support in all our efforts to engage students in meaningful learning experiences that help them grow into aware, confident, empathetic, responsible, and kind individuals.

Warm Regards,

Headmistress
